Community Standards

Last updated: 19.05.2025

Active since: 01.01.2026

Welcome to the Community Standards (“Policy”) of the DBD Comp Union This Policy exists to set standards in communication and interaction between users of our Services.

1. Scope and Services

1.1 Scope of Policy

This applies when you (“user”) use our Services (defined below) offered by the DBD Comp Union or any of its affiliates or partners (referred to as “we”, “our”), unless an affiliate has published their own community policy.

The terms of this policy together with our Terms of Service applies to your use of the Services. In certain circumstances, we may provide additional privacy-related information. This policy supplements such other notices.

1.2 Definition of Services

This Policy gives you information on our Community Standards and communication between users of our DBDCompNet., Discord Server, email, support, tournaments, DBD Comp Awards and streaming and video channels (“Services”).

2. Safety

We want our community to stay safe and protected. These following guidelines help enforce safety by our users.

2.1 Children

Any form of abuse towards children on any of our Services is extremely and very strictly prohibited. Children are all individuals under the age of 18. Abuse towards children is, but is not limited to:

- explaining explicit fantasies about children or actual events in which children their innocence is exploited,
- disclosing inappropriate events with children or planning for such to be executed,
- asking children for any form of personal information or sharing such information with others,
- other predatory behaviour,
- threatening children in any form, especially to do something inappropriate for one,
- sharing media or other documentation about children, including face censored media,
- talking towards children in a suggestive way or making children talk in a suggestive way and joining them

Children, which on purpose may others break these rules will be handled as prescribed in our terms. Children are always innocent unless they force others to break these rules. Children under the age of 13+ on Discord will be banned. Children under the age of 16+ on the DBDCompNet will be suspended even if prior consent by their legal guardian was provided.

2.2 Terrorism and Extremism

Terroristic behaviour, including threatening others and causing an extremist or terroristic environment is forbidden. We have a zero-tolerance policy for content or behaviour that incites, condones, supports, glorifies, or promotes any terrorist or extremist organization or individual (foreign or domestic), and their ideology, or actions, including:

- Depictions of or support for terrorist or extremist attacks
- Depictions of or support for the leaders or representatives of terrorist or extremist organizations
- Sharing the slogans, images, flags, manifestos, or icons of terrorist or extremist organizations, either in whole or in readily identifiable part
- References to the ideologies, messages, or strategies of terrorist and extremist organizations
- Expressing support, condoning, or glorifying terrorist extremist ideologies or actions

- Recruiting membership for a terrorist or extremist organization, or encouraging others to leave Roblox to find such information
- Fundraising for terrorist or extremist organizations, people, or supporting groups
- Expressing support, condoning, or glorifying mass shootings and other acts of domestic terrorism or violent extremism

2.3 Bullying

Bullying other members using our services to achieve any form of pain – mentally or physically – also including not trying to cause any harm, is strictly prohibited. We have a zero-tolerance policy for threatening others with real-world or online harm, inciting violence against people or property, bullying, stalking, trolling, harassment, intimidation, extortion, and blackmail. We also do not allow any content that depicts, glorifies, encourages, promotes, or provides instructions for such behaviour, including:

- Threatening physical or sexual assault or violence
- Threatening to harm someone in real life
- Revealing or threatening to reveal others' personal information
- Threatening to take over another's account or to file false abuse reports against another user
- Singling out a user or group for ridicule, abuse, humiliation, or degradation, either publicly or privately, including as part of a targeted mistreatment campaign
- Sexual harassment
- Impersonating individuals, groups, or entities, in ways that may damage their reputation or cause others to harm them, either online or in real life
- Shaming or stigmatising body types or physical features

2.4 Suicide or Self-Harm

We take our users' well-being very seriously. We're here to help provide resources for those struggling with mental health, and we reserve the right to communicate with authorities regarding credible threats of self-harm. We do not allow content or behaviour that depicts, glorifies, promotes, or encourages suicide, self-injury, eating disorders, or real-world activities that may create a serious or extreme risk of physical harm including:

- Providing instructions related to, or details of, methods for suicide or self-harm. This includes content that promotes ingestion of substances that would cause physical harm
- Content that glorifies, supports, or depicts instances or methods of suicide or self-harm
- Content that encourages depression, hopelessness and despair by portraying such feelings as aspirational or desirable
- Discouraging others from seeking the help they need to overcome feelings of depression and hopelessness
- Dangerous physical challenges or stunts in the real world

Find more information on what to do if, here.

2.5 Discrimination

The DBD Comp Union is no place for discrimination and so on does not condone it. Discrimination has many faces, for example we do not allow discrimination based on:

- Age
- Race, perceived race, or ethnicity
- National origin
- Sexual orientation
- Gender, gender identity, or gender expression
- Religion or religious affiliation or beliefs
- Disability status including diseases, bodily conditions, disfigurement, mobility issues, and mental impairment
- Veteran status
- Caste
- Familial status

This list does not exclude anything that another user may find as discrimination and that can also be enforced.

3. Off-Limits

The DBD Comp Union is no place for anything outside of Dead by Daylight or its Services.

3.1 Politics

You may not discuss current, past or bound to happen future political events. Political views can open doors to discrimination or controversial conversations.

3.2 Romance and Sexual Content

The DBD Comp Union is not a dating platform neither a platform to share sexual content between users and others. We do not allow content as follows:
